

PRESS CONFERENCE MEDIA HANDOUT

Tuesday, September 22, 2026 • 11:00 a.m. PT • Beverly Hills Marriott, Main Ballroom

MORE THAN 100 RIDERS ALLEGE BRAIN INJURIES FROM SIX FLAGS
MAGIC MOUNTAIN'S X2 ROLLER COASTERDordick Law Corporation files first three lawsuits alleging catastrophic brain damage*

Dordick Law Corporation has filed three lawsuits this week alleging catastrophic brain damage suffered by three clients who rode the X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain. The firm will also announce that more than 100 additional clients who allege traumatic brain injuries of varying severity from the same ride have retained the firm, with additional lawsuits to be filed over the coming weeks.

WHO Gary A. Dordick, Esq., Owner, and Christopher Bulone, Esq., Partner, of Dordick Law Corporation. Several clients will be present to make statements and answer questions. Naomi Greer-Wilkinson, who remains hospitalized in a semi-conscious state, will be represented by her parents.

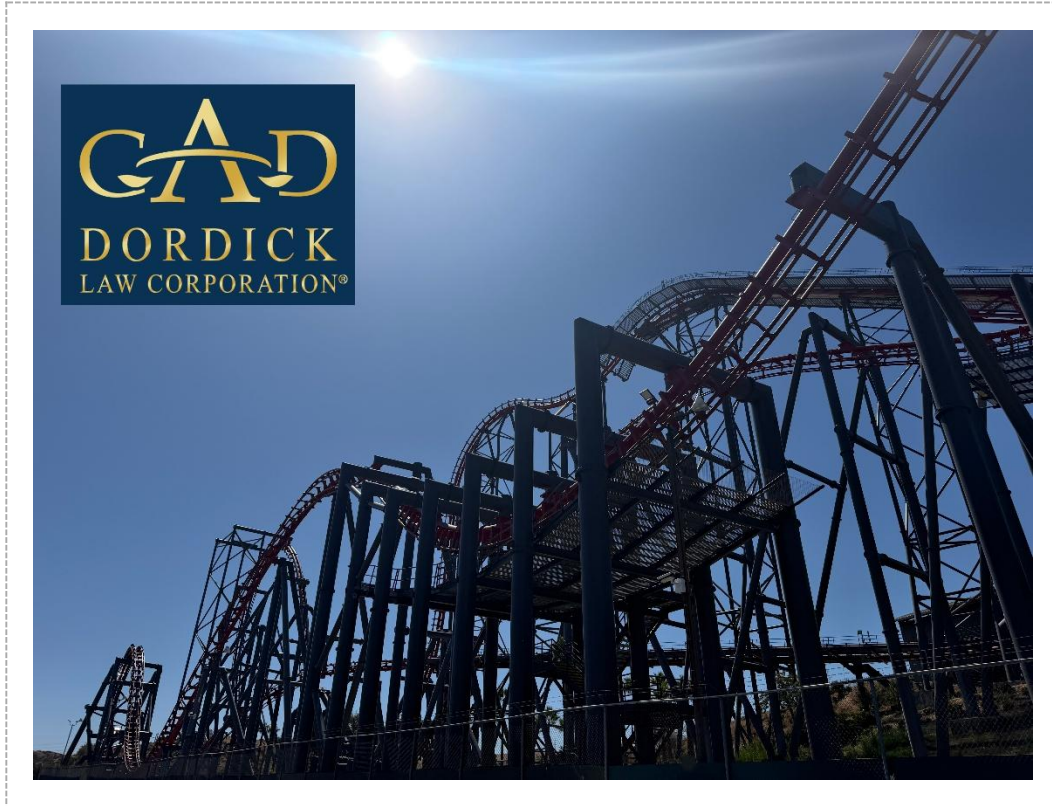

WHEN Tuesday, September 22, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. PT. Media check-in opens at 10:30 a.m.

WHERE Beverly Hills Marriott — Main Ballroom, 2nd Floor
1150 S. Beverly Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90035. Valet and self-parking available on site.

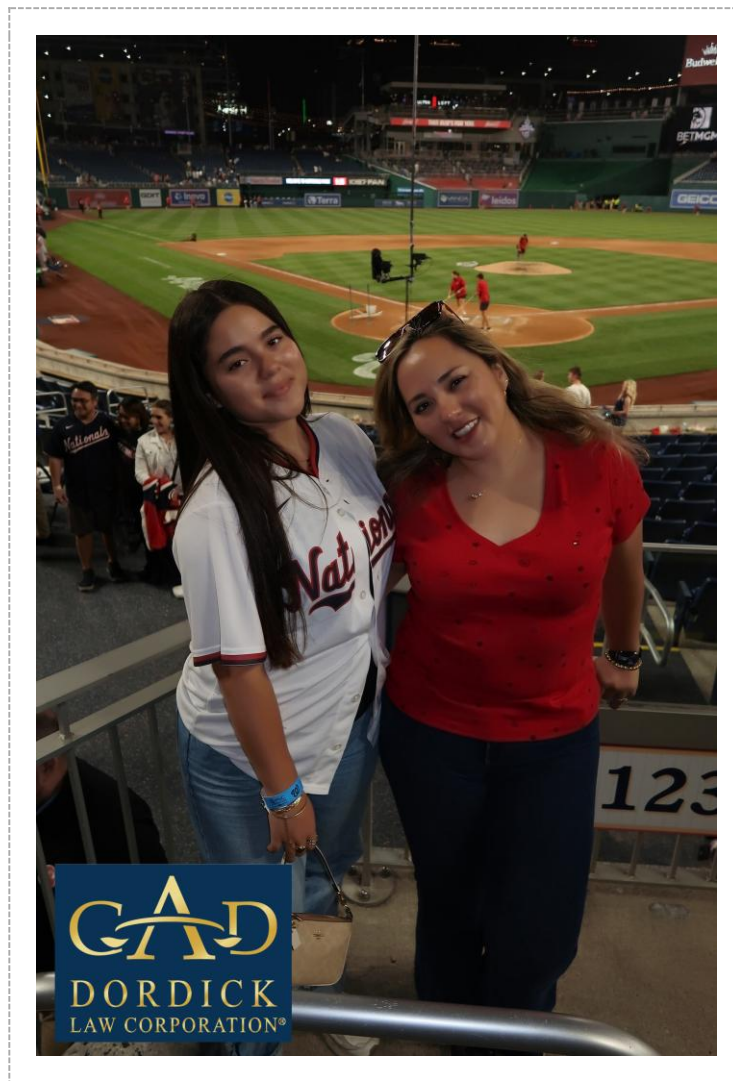

WHY Outlets attending will receive copies of the filed complaints, along with supporting materials from medical and engineering experts describing the mechanism by which the X2 ride is alleged to cause traumatic brain injury. Attorneys and clients will be available for one-on-one interviews immediately following the formal program.

INCIDENT PHOTOGRAPHS

Photos below provided by Dordick Law Corporation.

Caption:
Operating Six Flags Magic Mountain X2 roller coaster ride.

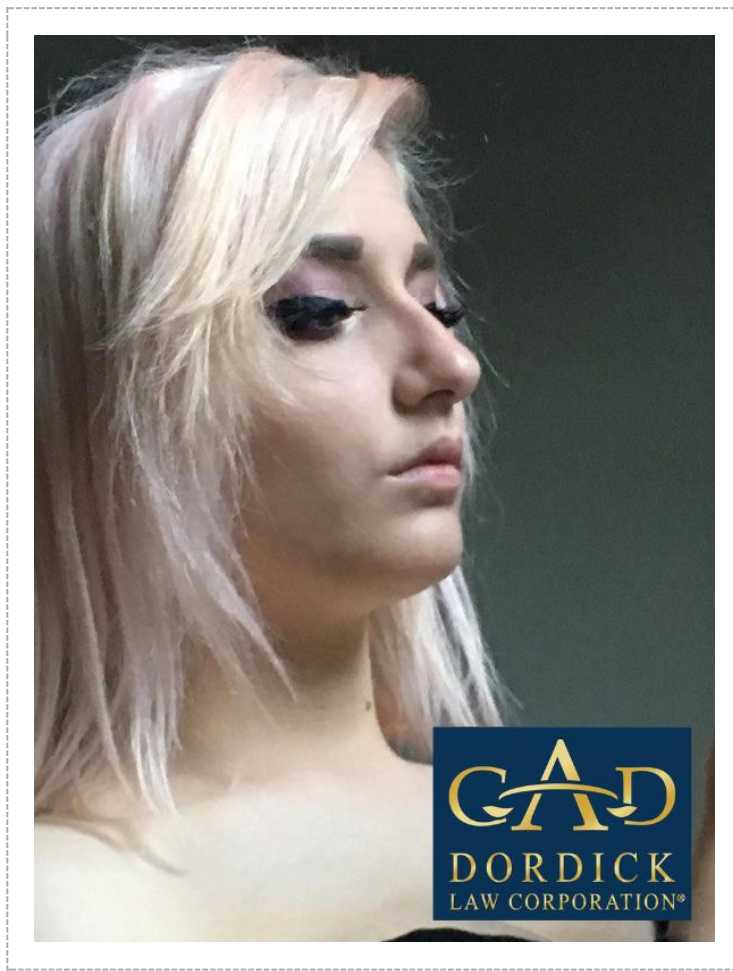

Caption:
Pamela Guillen, prior to riding the X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

Caption:

Pamela Guillen, following severe brain trauma suffered on X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

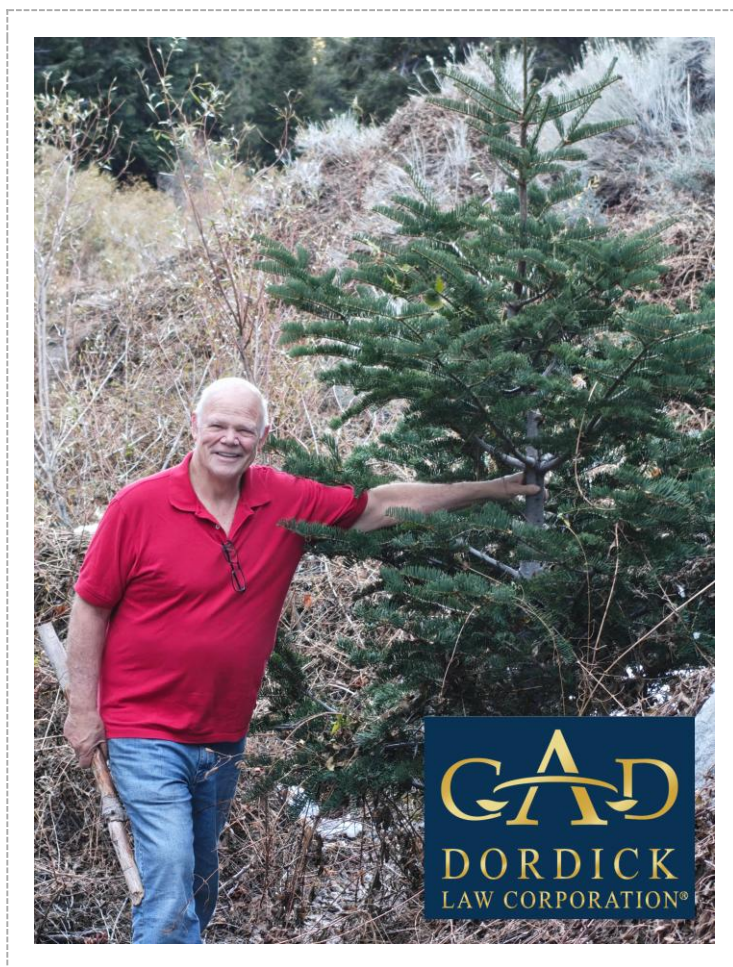

Caption:

Naomi Greer-Wilkinson, prior to riding the X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

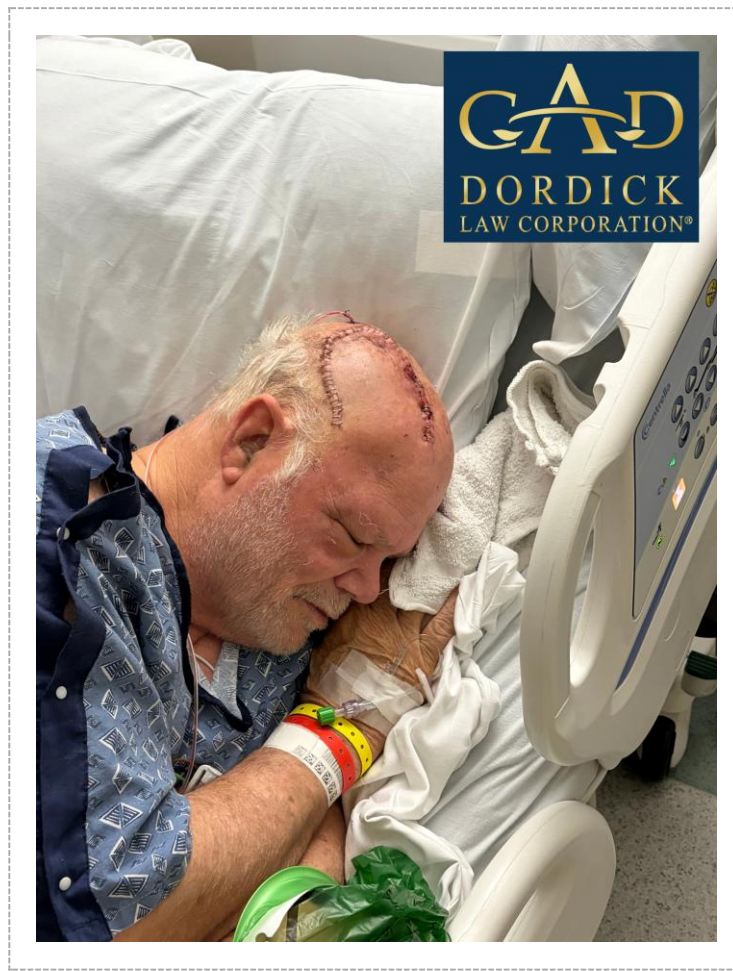

Caption:

Naomi Greer-Wilkinson, following severe brain trauma suffered on X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

Caption:
Michael Wilk, prior to riding the X2 roller coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

Caption:

Michael Wilk, following severe brain trauma suffered on X2 roll coaster at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

Caption:
Sign of closed X2 roller coaster ride after numerous incidents.

DOWNLOAD HIGH-RESOLUTION IMAGES

Full-resolution incident photographs are available via Dropbox:

For access please contact Glenda Gonzalez — glenda@dordicklaw.com — (424) 285-3502.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Will be provided through our website: www.dordicklaw.com under “Six Flags Magic Mountain Litigation”

ABOUT DORDICK LAW CORPORATION

AT A GLANCE

Founded 1987 by Gary A. Dordick. Focus: plaintiff-side civil litigation — catastrophic personal injury, traumatic brain injury, sexual abuse and assault, medical malpractice, premises liability, product defect, and employment. Offices: Beverly Hills (470 and 509 S. Beverly Dr.), Los Angeles (1122 Wilshire Blvd.), and Riverside (3891 11th St.). Size: 20 attorneys and 50+ staff.

TRIAL COUNSEL AT THE PODIUM

Gary A. Dordick — Founder. More than 200 jury trials. CAALA Trial Lawyer of the Year (2001) and CAALA Hall of Fame inductee (2023); CAOC Trial Attorney of the Year (2009); Daily Journal Top 100 Lawyers in California (2017, 2021–2025); Super Lawyers 2005–2027. President of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates (2025). Loyola Law School renamed its advocacy building the Dordick Family Trial Advocacy Building in 2023. He reached law school directly from high school after starting out as a law-firm file clerk.

Christopher Bulone — Partner; practice centered on catastrophic injury, traumatic brain injury, and medical malpractice. Lead or co-lead on the $72.6M Greene verdict, the $42.7M U-Haul product-defect resolution, and the $31.5M Banner Health malpractice verdict. Super Lawyers 2025–2027 (Rising Star 2020–2024); Top 40 Under 40 Civil Plaintiff Trial Lawyers (2019); Daily Journal Top 40 Under 40 (2023). University of San Francisco School of Law, 2011.

NOTABLE CASES & VERDICTS

- Doe, Jane v. Fitzgerald — $2.28 billion jury verdict (Riverside County, 2023), believed to be the largest single-plaintiff compensatory damages personal injury verdict in U.S. history.
- Gucci Zarini v. Ruffalo - $115 Million jury verdict (Los Angeles County, September 2025); childhood sexual abuse and emotional distress case, with Gary A. Dordick and Taylor B. Dordick representing plaintiff Gucci Zarini.
- Briones v. Zink — $125 million jury verdict (Ventura County, 2016), obtained on behalf of a 24-year-old client left paralyzed by a drunk driver; the largest personal injury verdict in California that year.
- Yelchin v. FCA US LLC — Wrongful death and product liability action on behalf of the family of "Star Trek" actor Anton Yelchin against Fiat Chrysler over a defective transmission; resolved via confidential settlement in 2018.
- Doe, Jane v. Alkiviades, David- $900 million jury verdict — Record-setting sexual assault verdict in Los Angeles Superior Court against entertainment figure Alkiviades David.
- Steward v. Stratus Security Services — $55.3 million jury verdict (San Bernardino County), obtained for a Rancho Cucamonga man, Antonio Steward, after he lost his legs in a shooting at his Fontana apartment building.
- Griepentrog v. Banner Health — $31,550,825 jury verdict (Maricopa County, Arizona, 2023); medical malpractice case over a birth injury that left the plaintiff's son with cerebral palsy, believed to be the largest personal injury and medical malpractice verdict in Arizona history.
- Sosa v. DJI Technologies, et al. — $31 million jury verdict (Los Angeles County); obtained for a pedestrian who suffered multiple bone fractures, a leg amputation, and a traumatic brain injury after being struck by a vehicle near LAX.
- Lambert v. General Motors — $15 million jury verdict (Victorville, California); obtained for an 18-year-old client left paralyzed in a rollover accident, over a defective roof-structure design in his Chevy Blazer.
- Schmidt v. State of California — $11,621,064 verdict (Riverside County); obtained against Caltrans over unsafe roadway conditions on State Route 62, believed to be one of the highest damage awards ever for loss of consortium.

NOTABLE UPCOMING TRIALS

- Augustine v. Schwarzenegger, Arnold

Trial Date: October 12, 2026, LASC-Beverly Hills Courthouse, Dept. 205 , Judge Edward B. Moreton, Jr.

In Los Angeles, Mr. Schwarzenegger's SUV struck our client Cheryl Augustine's vehicle, with his car landing on top of hers. The collision caused our client to suffer a traumatic brain injury.

- Svetnoy v. Rust Movie Productions, LLC, et al.

Trial Date: March 08, 2027, LASC-Stanley Mosk Courthouse, Dept. 512 , Judge Karine Mkrtchyan

Negligence and emotional distress action on behalf of the head lighting technician on the film "Rust," arising from the fatal on-set shooting of cinematographer Halyna Hutchins.